BALLSTARS was the very 1st Summer exposure event (1991) for the J.C. Player, and over the past 17 years "PLAYERS" attend for a variety for reasons:

High Major . . . attend to showcase skills and insure pre-season ALL*American status

Mid Major . . . seek to challenge the High Major's rank and raise their own "rep"

Low Major . . . want to increase their exposure to Colleges out of that Region

UI-C has 1st rate facilities, with two (2) courts in one facility, plus an attached building with five (5) more courts! This is a city campus at Halsted and Roosevelt Road.

Any Junior College Teams that want to participate here as a "CAMP TEAM" can, but the Head Coach or Assistant Coach cannot coach them. An NCAA "certified" person must be the one on the bench as the TEAM COACH @ any NCAA-D1 Camp!

This Camp annually attracts 80 - 150 College Coaches as this is a premier Summer Stop, plus my report via BALLPLAYERS J.C. Report goes out to more than 200 Schools coast-to-coast!

A Service with 30 years of experience will promote you. Many national publications seek out JUCOland info for their articles & columns by contacting BALLSTARS/BALLPLAYERS!
